

Letter from Bill Fuchs to Max Bredig, April 30, 1941

Fuchs, Wilhelm Werner. "Letter from Bill Fuchs to Max Bredig, April 30, 1941," April 30, 1941. Papers of Georg and Max Bredig, Box 8, Folder 7. Science History Institute. Philadelphia. <https://digital.sciencehistory.org/works/z35eofc>.

Courtesy of the Science History Institute, prepared June 4, 2025 12:12 UTC

Translated by Jocelyn R. McDaniel

English Translation

LONGACRE 5-3644

CABLE ADDRESS: IMPFFUCHS

BILL FUCHS
55 WEST 42ND STREET
NEW YORK, N.Y.

Mr. Max Bredig
664 West 163rd Street
New York City, N.Y.

April 30, 1941

Dear Max,

I feel guilty that I am just now writing to you after 4 weeks. However, moving a family of 6 and continuing to deal with Portuguese affairs, which are very urgent due to political developments in the Iberian Peninsula, are no easy feats.

You are probably better informed about your relatives than we are at the moment. In any case, to update you, I will send you the originals of the last letters I received from them. These were sent via Lisbon and are thus quite delayed. I informed your sister of my imminent departure in mid-March. I didn't want to say anything beforehand.

From your friend (Hochschild or something similar??), I didn't receive a confirmation of receipt for the packages.

I would be very happy if you would write to us and eventually visit us in Larchmont, where we are moving tomorrow. The easiest way to reach me is at the above address.

I look forward to meeting you in person soon.

Yours,
Bill Fuchs

Enclosures